Newark Area Residents Invited to 2008 ANNUAL LEGISLATIVE WRAP-UP to be held Tuesday, July 8.

Newark area legislators will hold their annual Legislative Wrap-up community meeting on Tuesday, July 8 at 7:30 p.m. in the Newark City Council Chambers at the Municipal Building, 220 Elkton Road in Newark.

The public is invited to this open town-meeting gathering to discuss the highlights of this year's action by the state legislature as it affects Newark area residents.

This event is a tradition that is unique to Newark among Delaware's municipal communities.

The Newark area legislators involved are Senators Liane Sorenson, Steve Amick and Karen Peterson, and Representatives Pam Maier, John Kowalko, Joe Miro and Terry Schooley.

Senator Liane Sorenson, a leader in sponsoring the event, said: "We look forward to spending this time with constituents each year, as we answer their questions and hear their comments about the legislative session and what issues are important to them."

Senator Sorenson emphasized that all residents of the Newark area are invited to attend and to ask questions about the operations of state government.
